

WESTERN
SAFETY and HEALTH CONSULTING

Health and Safety
CONSULTING

WorkSafeBC Legislation	5 Steps to Conducting an Investigation	Identifying Ways to Prevent Similar Incidents
What is an Investigation?	Collecting Facts	Communicating Recommendations
Defining an Accident & Incident	Determining Causes	Preliminary Investigation Report
Purpose of Conducting an Investigation	Sequence of Events & Root Cause Analysis	Interim Corrective Action Report
Employer & Supervisor Responsibilities / Supervisor Due Diligence	Completing WorkSafeBC Form 7 and Investigations Report Forms	Full Investigation Report
Training Young Workers	How to send Investigation Report to WorkSafeBC	Full Corrective Action Report
New Worker Orientations	Conducting Scene Assessments	Reporting of Incidents & Incidents Requiring Immediate Notification to WorkSafeBC
When is an Investigation Required	Interviewing Witnesses	WorkSafeBC Investigations
Who Should Conduct an Investigation	Determine the Underlying Causes	Final Exam
Responding to an Incident	Corrective Actions	Videos